No. 20 Civ. 00453 (KPF)
ECF Case

In accordance with the Court's January 17, 2020 Scheduling Order, Plaintiff Bryan Faubus respectfully submits this memorandum of law in support of the motion by Eric Young, Adam Kurtz, and David Crystal to appoint Kirby McInerney LLP ("Kirby") and the Radice Law Firm, P.C. ("Radice") (collectively, the "Kirby/Radice Team") as interim co-lead counsel.

Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 23(g)(3) permits the Court to "designate interim counsel to act on behalf of the putative class before determining whether to certify the action as a class action." Counsel's experience, knowledge of the law, and the resources it can commit to the litigation are important factors for the Court's consideration on this motion. Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(g)(ii-iv). The Kirby/Radice Team most effectively satisfies the requirements of Rule 23, for the reasons set forth below.

First, the Kirby/Radice Team's investigation and complaint did not merely rely on publicly-available factual information, but also included complex expert analysis identifying factual or statistical allegations particularized to exchange-based Bitcoin traders, including (1) developing a proprietary algorithm and identifying, for the first-time, specific dates of Defendants' manipulation of Bitcoin, (2) developing a proprietary systematic mapping of the trading flow of newly issued Tethers and identifying over 236 specific manipulative transactions, (3) identifying Defendants' manipulation on at least 115 different occasions, including intermediary wallets that Defendants potentially used for wash trading, (4) performing rigorous regression analyses evidencing that Defendants liquidated their Bitcoin holdings to replenish their U.S. dollars holdings and perpetuate their systematic manipulation, and (5) performing various regression analyses demonstrating the lockstep statistical relationship between Bitcoin and Bitcoin futures and identifying specific occasions of Defendants' manipulation and mean/median pricing impact on Bitcoin futures. The investigation by the Kirby/Radice team demonstrates not only that it has a commitment to the litigation, but also possesses the ability to analyze the novel and complex economic statistical issues that will arise in this litigation. Because this litigation focuses on novel and cutting-edge issues in the cryptocurrency markets, the ability of the Kirby/Radice Team to handle these complex analyses is essential to the effective litigation of the case.

Second, the Kirby/Radice Team has the expertise and resources necessary to litigate complex commodities and antitrust cases such as this one. Mr. Faubus's counsel, Glancy Prongay & Murray LLP ("GPM")<sup>1</sup> has worked with both Kirby and Radice extensively in the past in complex commodities, antitrust, securities, and derivative class actions. As a result, GPM has learned that both firms not only achieve excellent outcomes for the classes they represent, but both firms also work well with others. GPM believes that these two firms will best organize and litigate this case.<sup>2</sup>

<sup>1</sup> While GPM is supporting the appointment of the Kirby/Radice Team as interim lead counsel here, GPM also has extensive experience in complex class actions, and has served in lead counsel or executive committee capacities in many major securities, derivative, and antitrust litigations. GPM's résumé is attached hereto.

<sup>2</sup> Alternatively, GPM submits that the Kirby firm should be appointed as Interim Lead Counsel and/or Plaintiffs' Liaison Counsel based on the strength of the analysis in the Young Complaint and the leadership already demonstrated in their cooperative approach to these Related Actions. See Order Appointing Interim Co-Lead Counsel, Binz v. Amadeus IT Group, S.A., No. 15 Civ. 5457 (KPF) (S.D.N.Y. Dec. 7, 2015) [ECF No. 144] (appointing plaintiffs' liaison counsel to interface with the Court and defense counsel).

Accordingly, Plaintiff Bryan Faubus supports the appointment of the Kirby/Radice team as interim co-lead counsel.

In re Yahoo! Inc. Sec. Litig.*, N.D. Cal., Case No. 17-cv-373

In reaching an $80 million settlement for a class of stock purchasers, the firm achieved the first significant settlement in a suit brought by shareholders under Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1933 based on a company's alleged failure to disclose adequately cybersecurity risks and incidents. GLANCY PRONGAY & MURRAY LLP was Co-Lead Counsel.

The City of Farmington Hills Employees Retirement System v. Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., D. Minn. Case No. 10-cv-04372

The Class's claims were for breaches of fiduciary duty, breaches of contract, and violations of the Minnesota Prevention of Consumer Fraud Act (Minn. Stat. § 325F.69). The lawsuit alleged that through its administration of its securities lending program, Wells Fargo breached its contractual agreements with and fiduciary duties to the Class and violated the Minnesota Prevention of Consumer Fraud Act. Specifically, the Class Action alleged that CFHERS and other Class members entered into securities lending agreements and other agreements with Wells Fargo. Pursuant to such agreements, Wells Fargo loaned CFHERS's and Class members' securities to third party borrowers in return for cash collateral. In its complaint, CFHERS alleged that Wells Fargo acted imprudently by investing and maintaining the securities lending collateral in high risk, long-term securities on behalf of members of the Class, which violated the express terms and principle objectives of the securities lending agreements. The alleged high risk, long-term securities included, but were not limited to, structured investment vehicles, including Cheyne and Victoria, mortgage-backed securities, other asset-backed securities, and corporate bonds for such companies as Lehman Brothers and Bear Stearns. Finally, CFHERS alleged that Wells Fargo's improper conduct as the administrator of the securities lending program caused substantial losses to CFHERS and members of the Class. On the eve of trial, the case settled for $62.5 million.

Mercury Interactive Corporation Securities Litigation, N.D. Cal. Case No. 5:05-cv-3395

Mercury made a series of public disclosures revealing that an investigation was being conducted into possible unreported backdating of stock options. As these disclosures of potential wrongdoing at Mercury became more serious, it was announced that the CEO, CFO, and General Counsel would be resigning because they had been aware of, participated in, and benefitted from repeated instances of illegal stock options backdating. Mercury's stock price dropped significantly in reaction to these announcements, and created a huge, unfair loss to investors. Serving as Co-Lead Counsel, GLANCY PRONGAY & MURRAY LLP achieved a recovery for investors of over $117 million.

Real Estate Associates Securities Litigation, C.D. Cal. Case No. 98-cv-07035

In 1998 the individual defendants caused consent solicitation statements to be sent to the limited partners of each of the Real Estate Associates partnerships. The consent solicitations allegedly contained statements which were false and misleading and failed to disclose certain material information, violating Sections 14(a) and Rule 14a-9 of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934. The complaint sought declaratory and injunctive relief for violations of federal and state law and compensatory and punitive damages for breach of common law fiduciary duties. A recovery of $83 million was achieved for investors.

liquidity and the Company's manufactured-homes financing business. Although defendants were in possession of materially adverse information about Consec's liquidity problems and problems with the collectability of the Company's mobile home loans, they failed to fully disclose the information to investors, causing Consec's stock price to become artificially inflated. The Complaint alleged violations of Sections 10(b) and 20(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and S.E.C. Rule 10b-5. This case stems from a financial securities firm's alleged conflicts of interest. The conflict alleged pitted the firm's securities analysts against the firm's actual or potential investment banking clients. It was alleged that this conflict of interest, which was not disclosed by the firm to its shareholders, artificially inflated the price of the firm's stock purchased during the relevant time period. Defendants engaged in a series of undisclosed acts and practices that created conflicts of interest for their research analysts with respect to investment banking consideration. These practices were allegedly used to help Goldman compete for Initial Public Offering ("IPO") business, which "resulted in lucrative banking fees and the promise of future investment banking and related businesses such as fees from secondary offerings, making bridge loans and other corporate financing transactions, and advising on mergers and acquisitions." GLANCY PRONGAY & MURRAY LLP served as Co-Lead Counsel for the Class and achieved a settlement of $29 million.

Specifically, shortly before the Infonet IPO in December 1999, Infonet acquired AUCS. ## CONSUMER LITIGATION

GLANCY PRONGAY & MURRAY LLP successfully litigated on behalf of consumers throughout the United States. Individuals in our society work hard to provide for their families and deserve to rely upon truthful information when purchasing products and services. Accordingly, we fight for consumers when corporations attempt to deceive or take advantage of customers. Consumer fraud occurs when a customer buys a product that does not perform as represented or advertised, or purchases services that are not the same as represented or advertised.

The Firm is committed to protecting and defending the rights of defrauded consumers. Our Consumer Practice Group focuses upon companies that reap millions of dollars in profits by misrepresenting their products or services. In many instances, class actions provide the only viable avenue to vindicate his or her rights as a consumer. Accordingly, the Firm has taken a leading role in many of the most significant federal and consumer fraud cases throughout the country. Indeed, the Firm's Consumer Practice Group has obtained outstanding results for consumers. For example, in Pascussi v. Airtouch Communications, a cellular phone service provider improperly charged all of its Michigan customers for certain calls. Through our class action lawsuit, the Firm recovered a settlement of $30 million for injured consumers. The Firm's Consumer Practice Group similarly represents consumers nationwide in a variety of important consumer cases and has achieved significant results through our efforts.

The Firm has also represented clients in many security breached and breach of privacy cases, including Gordon v. Chipotle Mexican Grill, Inc., (D. Colo. 17-cv-1415); Hameed-Bolden v. Forever 21 Retail (C.D. Cal. 18-cv-3019); In re Yahoo! Inc. Customer Data Breach Sec. Litig. (N.D. Cal. 16-md-2752); Brady v. Scotty's Holdings (N.D. Ind. 19-cv-4782); *Whalen v. Sunrise Med. Through our Corporate Mergers & Acquisitions Litigation Practice Group, the Firm is heavily active in securities fraud prevention. The Firm brings actions on behalf of shareholders of companies that have entered into management-led buyouts, mergers, tender-offers, or other business combinations. ## DERIVATIVE & CORPORATE GOVERNANCE LITIGATION

GLANCY PRONGAY & MURRAY LLP has a robust Derivative & Corporate Governance Litigation Practice. Many corporate officers and directors engage in misconduct that wastes corporate assets, undermines faith in the financial markets, and diminishes the trust of shareholders. The Firm's fervent commitment to corporate accountability has enabled us to seek governance reforms that will align the interests of management with those of shareholders. Our efforts also serve to deter fraud and other corporate wrongdoing.

Throughout our Derivative & Corporate Governance Litigation Practice Group, the Firm is focused upon restoring accountability, preserving corporate assets, improving transparency, and protecting shareholder value. Because shareholder derivative actions often result in significant corporate governance reforms that have a positive impact on the long-term interests of shareholders, we utilize such litigation to demand accountability on behalf of our clients.
